

SOLDIER MATERIAL

OF 50 MEN EXAMINED FRIDAY MORNING, MAJORITY WERE FOUND FIT

Fifty men passed through the hands of Doctors Scott, Harrower and Flint Friday morning and Chairman Lanterman reports that a surprisingly large number of them were found fit and recommended for Class 1.

The examining by physicians of registrants called by this Board is nearly completed under the original regulations. A few men who were called took advantage of the postponement of the work awaiting new instructions which have not been received, but they have been asked to return Monday when it is believed the instructions will be here. Delinquents will be examined as they appear. Men who have been examined will not be recalled unless the revised instructions are of such a nature as to make necessary a re-examination of the men who have already passed through the hands of the doctors.

Doctor Scott will no longer be a member of the medical staff of this Board except in a consulting capacity. The work which yet remains to be done will be performed by Glendale physicians.

Dr. Fay G. Stone of Brand and Broadway, this city, has associated with him a number of dentists who have volunteered to devote considerable time daily to putting the teeth of registrants into good condition before they are sent to camp. Any boys of Class 1 desiring to take advantage of this offer should present themselves at the office of Dr. Stone and he will assign them to the dentists who will do the work.

WILL ATTEND ARMY BALL

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Liddell, 234 N. Kenwood, left this afternoon by motor with a party of friends for San Diego and Camp Kearny where they will visit their son, Frank Liddell, Jr., who is a member of Battery F, Field Artillery. Frank has organized a Jazz band of 40 or 50 members in the 143rd regiment that will play for the ball at Hotel del Coronado this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Liddell will be guests of their son at the ball.

MUST REGISTER

Every person who has not registered since January 1, 1918 is not eligible to vote at elections that are apt to be called at any time. A few of the registrars are P. F. Rentfrow, barber shop, 409 S. Brand boulevard; Mrs. May E. Myton, 404 S. Glendale avenue; and Mrs. C. H. Bott, of the Glendale Book Store, 313 South Brand boulevard.

RED CROSS OPEN HOUSE

CHAPTER WILL ENTERTAIN PUBLIC AT HEADQUARTERS ON THURSDAY EVENING

In spite of the fact that Glendale's Red Cross Chapter has been in its new quarters for several weeks, not all citizens who are interested have had an opportunity to inspect them. Some friends of the work are busy during the day and for that reason have been cut off from the privilege of calling at the rooms. Now that the chapter is in a position to entertain its friends it cannot resist the temptation so it is inviting the public to an open house which will be given next Thursday evening. That is St. Valentine's day and it will be a real love feast. Anyone who wants to bring a valentine to the cause in the shape of a membership subscription will be introduced to the patron saint of the occasion and given a good time. Just who will be selected for the patron saint has not been announced, but the suspicion prevails that it will be John Hyde Braly, president of the Chapter, as both titles of patron and saint are said to fit him.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower has undertaken to be responsible for providing a rousing good entertainment, and refreshments will be served by a group of hostesses from private contributions, not with the funds of the Chapter.

Heads of departments will be there to exhibit the work of which they are in charge, and it will be a get-together informal social affair. Ladies will be welcome to bring their knitting. As this will be an exhibition evening, all regular workers are requested to be present.

As announced in Thursday's paper, these evening meetings will hereafter be held weekly to give Red Cross volunteers who are busy during the day an opportunity to give an evening's work to the cause.

WORKERS' CONFERENCE

MRS. ARTHUR BROWN IS HOSTESS TO PARENT-TEACHER PRESIDENTS

The Executive Board of the Glendale Federation of P.-T. A.'s and the presidents of the several organizations were entertained by the president, Mrs. Arthur Brown at her home, 1301 Milford street, Friday afternoon, February 8th. Preceding the luncheon a fine concert was appreciated by all present, Mrs. R. White, Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, Mrs. Adelaide Imier and Mrs. Minette Sherman doing their bits in a musical way.

The hostess then told the ladies that she had arranged for a little business meeting and had requested Superintendent Richardson D. White who was present, to explain the plan of organizing the Junior Red Cross, which he did to the satisfaction and pleasure of all. He spoke of the great enthusiasm of the children and their eagerness to work along just such lines.

Mrs. R. D. White then read a paper on the Los Angeles County Public Welfare and Child Labor laws.

Mrs. Brown spoke of the anniversary of the Parent Teacher Association and its celebration and it was decided by vote to devote that afternoon to a reception for Dr. Jessie Russell, State President of California Congress of Mothers. All the ladies present concurred in the idea. This reception will take place in the auditorium of the Intermediate School on the regular meeting day, Monday, February 18th. The following ladies were appointed a committee of arrangements: Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, chairman, Mrs. Adelaide Imier, Mrs. John Robert White, Mrs. H. W. Yarik, Miss Eva Daniels.

A letter of appreciation of the P.-T. A. was read from Mrs. Bertha Rockhold, who is at present in the Glendale Sanitarium. Both her husband and her son are in France.

Mrs. E. S. McKee was appointed to represent the Association on the Welfare Bureau of Glendale.

Reports of the progress of the Tropico School Consolidation Petition were given.

Mrs. Ben Nichols was appointed on the nominating committee for the First District.

Mrs. Greenwalt, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee spoke of the desire to give an entertainment for the Federation, each school to provide a number by the children of that school.

Altogether it was a splendid day in which the following ladies participated: Mesdames Nichols, Greenwalt, Sherman, Richardson, Anderson, Chambers, Imier, J. D. White, Duey, Cassell, Lehman, Yarik, Ayers, McKee, Henry, R. D. White, Durr, Kurtz, McPherson, Carmichael, Shaw, Hester, Barton, Miss Daniels and Superintendent R. D. White.

PATRIOTIC MEETING

The Colorado Boulevard P.-T. A. held its annual Patriotic meeting and Father's night combined, Thursday, February 7th, at the school building. After a short business session they proceeded to the fifth grade room, where a large number of guests had gathered. From the splendid sum cleared from the entertainment given recently under the auspices of the Broadway and Colorado schools, it was voted to donate $25 to the Junior Red Cross, also to give three dollars towards subscriptions for magazines for soldier boys. Mrs. Chase was the fortunate one to have the most visiting fathers and mothers, so received the picture for her room for the following month.

The Junior Red Cross will soon begin their work, under the supervision of Mrs. Betz.

First on the program was a patriotic medley by Miss Champlain. A most appropriate reading followed by Miss Doris Packer, "Your Flag and My Flag." We were then entertained by Mrs. Frank Arnold with a solo "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Mrs. Arnold's sweet and lovely voice brought forth a loud applause, which she most graciously responded to with the "catchy" "Sandman." Last, but far from being least, Mr. Richardson D. White, Superintendent of Schools, gave a most interesting address on "Schools and the War," showing very distinctively the effect of war upon schools and the effect of schools upon war. After this most instructive talk, unison singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" followed with Miss Katherine Delgado at the piano. At the close of the program, refreshments were passed and all tarried for a social time.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to-night and Sunday. Light frosts.

WAR DEPT. COMPILES LIST OF SAVED

NAMES OF SURVIVORS OF TUSCANIA DISASTER BEING RECEIVED AND CHECKED FOR PUBLICATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, February 9.—Another 24 hours waiting left little hope that America's loss from the Tuscania torpedoing will be less than the original United Press figures yesterday—145 United States officers and soldiers.

Out of the war zone today came the names of hundreds of American boys saved, to ease the anxiety of hundreds of homes in the country. Names are now being sent in a steady stream and are being rapidly compiled for publication. Not until the entire list is in will the war department be able to check up and determine those who gave up their lives.

Those thus far announced include the following Californians: John F. G. Equi, San Francisco; James O. Dickford, Oakland; George Chaves, San Jose; Frank Clark, Templeton; Chas. W. Collins, San Jose; Clifford V. Hanley, Orcutt; Dennis L. Jones, Arbutle; Leroy W. Johnson, Oakland.

STANDARDIZING RAILROADS

EXPERTS THINK UNIFORMITY OF EQUIPMENT WILL MEAN THE SOLUTION OF MANY R. R. PROBLEMS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, February 9.—The complete standardization of railroad stock is the economic measure being worked out today by the Railroad administration, and it is felt here may be a wedge leading to continued government control of the railroads even after they have passed back to private ownership.

It is possible the government may direct standardization work after the roads go back to their owners because under private control railroad heads could never agree. This uniformity of equipment will cure many of the ills of transportation and finances of railroads, experts believe.

FRENCH TAKE PRISONERS

GARDEN SOCIETY

REPORT 3500 PENNY PACKETS OF SEED SOLD TO CHILDREN

An excellent and enthusiastic meeting of the Glendale Garden Society was held Thursday evening at the Intermediate School at which a number of interesting speeches were made.

Superintendent Richardson D. White explained the object of teaching agriculture to the children in the schools and expressed his appreciation of the cooperation of the Glendale Garden Society in providing a revolving fund to be used in furnishing seed to the children at cost price.

Mrs. H. C. Ackley, chairman of the seed distribution committee reported that she and her assistants had put up and sold over 3500 packages of seed at one cent each. These were sold to school children, their requests for seeds being turned in to their teachers and by them reported to Mrs. Ackley. The idea in providing these small packages of seed is that owing to the great demand for seed both in this country and Europe which has greatly advanced the price, it is necessary to teach children to use the seed sparingly and make every seed count. Also, because of this enormous demand an effort is being made to teach the children to grow and harvest their own seed because it is going to advance in price and it is important that they should save it.

Mrs. Delos Jones spoke of the tremendous benefit she and her family had derived from the work of the Glendale Garden Society in encouraging and helping her in the planting of vegetables from which she had partially provided for her home table. She said she had also gained 17 pounds in weight. She considers that the essentials of gardening are deep irrigation and constant cultivation.

Tom Hutchinson, who has resided for 53 years in Los Angeles County and who is a practical farmer, said he believed the great thing necessary to teach all amateur gardeners is thorough preparation of the soil. "People are so anxious to plant that they do not prepare the soil properly," he declared.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, who has been following up the castor bean propaganda, said that his investigations had shown that it is too expensive to market it; that the gathering of the seed and preparing it is altogether too difficult for the average grower, and he would not advise Glendale people to try it.

Mrs. Johanna Edwards spoke of the value of Swiss Chard not only as food for rabbits but as a table delicacy. She urged that the water in which it is boiled be saved until the next day and made into soup by the addition of milk and seasoning and said that the stalks of the chard could be used the same as asparagus.

Mrs. Nanno Woods had a good word to say for parsley which she declares is not used enough in this country. In Great Britain a favorite method of using it is to make an ordinary butter sauce and boil the parsley in it which can then be used on potatoes and all kinds of vegetables, or a delicious luncheon dish can be made by pouring the sauce over rounds of buttered toast. Parsley, she declared, should be grown in every back yard.

Maurice B. Hartmann contributed a few pertinent words of suggestion and comment.

G. Coulson dwelt on the necessity of a compost bin. He urged that nothing be wasted not even the neighbors' grass cuttings which can all be added to the bin with profit and the agriculturist can thus provide himself with fertilizer for use the year around.

Several new members were enrolled and all left the meeting with added enthusiasm for the cause.

EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES

Mrs. Hess of 1433 Myrtle avenue is the owner of an automobile and decided she would like to have the occasional services of a competent chauffeur. As a means of getting in touch with men qualified to meet her needs she inserted an ad in the classified advertising columns of this paper. The returns exceeded her fondest hopes and she finally telephoned the management to please take the ad out as she was suffering from an embarrassment of riches in the way of desirable and competent chauffeurs between whom she was finding it a hard task to choose. She reports that about twenty applicants answered her ad. and she is more than ever convinced of the worth of the paper as an advertising medium.

A JINX EVENING

FRESHMEN GIRLS ENTERTAINED BY GIRLS' LEAGUE OF UNION HIGH SCHOOL

The Girls' League of Union High, of which Miss Margaret Lusby is president, entertained the new comers, the Freshmen, with a jinx party Friday evening in the Cafeteria of the school.

About 250 girls enjoyed the affair, the way for which had been paved by the League by the appointment of committees whose business was to extend the glad hand of welcome to new students and make them feel at home as they entered the school. In line with this policy, each new girl was invited to the party by some member of an older class and as a result there was no frost to be thawed out. Everybody joined in the fun and the Freshmen felt as much at home as the older students.

The party was in charge of Miss Ruth Ryan, chairman of the program committee and a very successful feature was a yell contest which was carried out by dividing the guests into about ten groups and giving each group a pennant bearing the name of some well-known college. Then at call, each group responded with the supposed yell of that college. There was wholesome rivalry of invention in the production of these yells and the result exceeded the fondest hopes of the program committee. There were other contests including a three-legged race, and simple refreshments of cocoa and wafers were served.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH IN WAR TIME

In a democracy, efficient government depends upon organized and enlightened public opinion, which in turn supposes ample freedom of discussion. This is a general truth the application of which is not restricted to normal and peaceful conditions. Neither in peace nor in war are the officials of government infallible. They can always receive valuable enlightenment and co-operation from the discussion of public questions by the people whom they represent. Should they attempt to suppress entirely discussion of the war or criticism of their conduct of the war, they would not only deprive themselves of important assistance and support, but would become so alienated from the desires and sympathies of the people that they could not long carry on the business of war successfully. This is a fundamental consideration which even Mr. Bryan, democrat as he is and lover of peace as he is, seems to have momentarily underestimated, when he wrote that the citizen in private life is not called upon to discuss questions of war which are before Congress.

The second general consideration is suggested by the words of Pope Leo XIII, that liberty of speech and of the press should be "used in moderation." Now moderation must be much more strictly interpreted when the nation is at war than when it is at peace. The reason is the indefinitely greater consequences that may follow a wide liberty of speech in the former situation. A parcel post system or a protective tariff law may be subjected to such severe criticism by individuals and organizations that they will be abandoned by the government. Though the consequent injury to the public weal may be very great, it is neither enormous nor irreparable. Criticism of a war policy may lead to national defeat, humiliation, and loss of independence. Therefore, reason and common sense dictate that the critic should examine carefully the grounds of his opinion and its probable consequences, and set forth his views with becoming diffidence and modesty.

No opponent or critic of the war who is genuinely loyal to his country need fear that the federal government will deny him the privilege of freedom of speech. For the honest and patriotic critic will confine his utterances to complaints and proposals that are constructive, and that stop short of giving "aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States." While insisting as strongly as he likes upon his constitutional and moral rights to contribute to the process of forming helpful opinion, he will bear in mind that lies and lying insinuations, direct or oblique opposition to essential military measures, and peace proposals that would leave Uncle Sam virtually bound and gagged at the same peace table with the triumphant exponents of Prussian autocracy, are justifiable neither in law nor in morals. There exists no right to any such abuse of free speech.—Rev. John A. Ryan in Catholic World.

NEW THOUGHT CELEBRATION

A large crowd taxing the seating capacity of the Masonic Temple gathered at the celebration in honor of the second anniversary of the Glendale New Thought Center Friday afternoon and evening.

Dr. Frank Riley, acting as chairman, opened the afternoon session, introducing Miss Harriet Hale Rix, who is the representative for the Southern California district of the New Thought Alliance and is a sister of Mrs. Annie Rix Militz, the organizer of the various Homes of Truth scattered throughout the land. Miss Rix explained the loosely organized alliance of the New Thought movement, made up of many different schools, broad in grasp, in healing, in methods.

Miss Grace Wilson, past secretary of the Alliance with headquarters at Washington, D. C. sang "Hold Thou My Hand" in a beautifully clear voice.

Ida Mansfield Wilson followed with a talk on the "Blessed Eyes That See." Mrs. Wilson is a popular teacher and lecturer, working now in Pasadena.

Mrs. Clyde Carmack and Mrs. U. F. Newlin sang "Face to Face" in a most pleasing manner.

Miss Grace Wilson told of the organization of the Alliance, how in 1914 the work became international in its scope, the congress being held in London. The next congress will be held in Boston in September 1918.

After a few words from Mrs. W. W. Huntington of Los Angeles, the afternoon session was dismissed.

Many had brought box lunches and tables were set for all. The table seating the fifteen speakers and guests of honor was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and violets, the gift of Dr. Seton, while the center of the table held a huge birthday cake with two lighted candles.

The evening session was wonderfully inspiring. Mr. Harry Gaze of the Los Angeles Life Building Association took as his topic "Birthdays and How to Celebrate Them." Mr. Gaze's enthusiasm, his youthful manner of celebrating real birthdays, his message of optimism brought enthusiastic applause.

A solo "Scenes that are Brightest" was sung by Miss Alice Dorn of Los Angeles. Miss Dorn played her own accompaniment and sang most charmingly.

Dr. Julia Seton, the incomparable Dr. Seton, spoke on the "Frictionless Way." Her poise and power are always manifested in all her lectures. She gave the secret of this wonderful life without friction as the silent realization of the God power of the I Am within which wins the way.

Mrs. J. C. Dennerlin, the president of the Glendale New Thought Board gave a brief review of the beginning of the Glendale organization.

Mrs. U. F. Newlin pleased with two beautiful solos.

There were many prominent speakers and workers present from Long Beach, San Diego and other points.

GREAT MUSICAL EVENT

Miss Alice Frank, chairman of the Lincoln's Birthday Red Cross concert announces that final details are being arranged for one of the most notable musical events ever held in Glendale. She expresses her appreciation of the ladies of the First Methodist church for arranging their February festival to take place at an early hour so that those who wish may attend both entertainments. Miss Frank says she has met with every courtesy from musicians who are giving their services for the evening and others who are assisting her in this work and making it a pleasure, for all of which she is very grateful. There is every indication that the high school auditorium will overflow Tuesday evening and that the concert will receive the patronage and appreciation it merits.

WISCONSIN PICNIC

Under the auspices of the Wisconsin Association of Southern California, the great annual picnic will be held in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles all day Tuesday, February 12th with basket picnic dinners at noon. The county regesters will be in place all day and there will be a chance to find old friends. The program will be given about two o'clock and will include patriotic songs and addresses by Wisconsin orators. Hon. E. W. Chafin, once a candidate for the presidency of the United States and one of the foremost orators of the nation will be one of the speakers. All Wisconsin people are invited.

A BETTER WITNESS

A driver who had been brought before the court charged with cruelty to animals admitted that he had driven a galled mule, but demanded acquittal on the testimony of a veterinarian, who declared that the sore on the mule's back did not pain the animal in the least. The judge listened to the long technical opinion, says Case and Comment, and then asked where the mule was. When he heard that it was harnessed to a wagon that stood in front of the court house, he adjourned the court for five minutes.

He took his cane and proceeded to the street, went up to the mule and with the end of his cane gently touched the sore spot on the animal's back. The mule promptly tried to kick the dashboard off the wagon. Once again the judge touched the sore spot with his cane, and the mule responded as before. The judge returned to the bench and ordered the prisoner to appear before him.

"With all due respect to the expert testimony you have introduced in your behalf to show that the mule's back does not pain him, I will fine you fifty dollars," announced the judge. "I asked the mule if the sore hurt him, and he said it did." Youth's Companion.

SHOWER AND LUNCHEON

The residents of the Atwater Tract are very hospitable and are always having pleasant little social affairs among themselves. One of the most delightful of these was given last week by Mrs. F. C. Charles of Perlita avenue when she entertained with a stork party and luncheon for Mrs. C. E. Brownard. Covers were laid for fourteen and the table, daintily decorated in accordance with a pink and blue color scheme was cleverly worked out, was centered with a stork. The hostess was assisted by her niece, Miss Hazel Giddings of Kansas City, Missouri, who will be her guest for the balance of the winter. Mrs. Brownard was the recipient of a shower of beautiful needlework and other gifts. Other guests were: Mrs. H. T. Colby, Mrs. Alexander Karnbach, Mrs. C. L. Harris, Mrs. J. Hacker, Mrs. Douglas Holman, Mrs. J. W. Cully, Miss Florence Stewart, Mrs. William K. Fleishman and Mrs. Colby's little son.

ART AND TRAVEL SECTION

Special attention is called to the regular meeting of the Art and Travel Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the curator, Mrs. Charles Turk, 521 Glendale avenue.

The party will visit the chateaux at Cheverny and Chambord, from there the members will go to the city of Tours, which will be made their headquarters and from whence they will visit the surrounding country by auto. A place of special interest to the tourists will be Vouvray, world famous for being the home of the Troglodytes who, though they live in caverns have most comfortable and artistic homes.

The curator has lived many years in France as a student of art and history and loves the French people. She has a large and very interesting collection of photos and souvenirs of travel. Guests are always welcome to join the party at these gatherings.

RED CROSS NOTES

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter will be held at the home of the president, John Hyde Braly, on Brand boulevard, Monday evening.

A good friend of the chapter has contributed a fund which will be used to defray the cost of the tea and coffee which will be served daily at noon to any workers who have brought lunches. This friend feels that such devoted contributors of service are entitled to this small comfort without charge.

Two bolts of gauze were cut for the surgical dressings department at Red Cross Headquarters on Thursday. Thirty-four packages of 4x8 compresses were tied into bundles and 307 were folded. Mrs. Edgar W. Pack was the instructor and the following ladies worked that day: Mesdames:

 C. L. Bullard,
 E. W. Towle,
 A. L. Lawshe,
 A. Parker,
 C. L. Peckham,
 C. Farnham,
 C. E. Hughes,
 E. W. Lilly,
 W. J. Stone,
 J. Paul.

February 8th Mrs. Boothby was the instructor and the list of workers includes, Mesdames:

The same afternoon the leather waistcoat department had an afternoon at headquarters, supervised by Miss Griffith, its chairman. Four waistcoats were completed and gloves and other material was prepared. Miss Griffith is anxious that the public should be impressed with the urgent need of these vests for birdmen and others subject to great exposure, and she is begging all citizens to get busy and send in stocks of gloves and other soft leather.

Headquarters were closed Saturday afternoon.

is in the eating." Whenever I find a newcomer who has "Provident" insurance, I don't have to ask him whether he is pleased with it or not—I know he is and will buy more if he is not physically or financially disabled. That is what gives me such confidence in the Company and makes me enjoy selling its protection to you. It is a great privilege to be able to get Provident insurance, because it is a well-known fact that the Company is more discriminating in the selection of its risks than any other, as is proven by its very low death-rate, which for the past five years has averaged less than 50 per cent of the expected, and last year was only 45 per cent! Think of it, for a Company fifty-three years old! Come in and share this with us mutually.

BIG VARIETY SHOW

The date of the big annual Variety Show to be given at the Glendale Union High School has been changed because of conflict with the date set for the Elks' Ball on February 22. The vaudeville performance, which is promised to be bigger and better than ever this year will be given a week later. There will be three performances, including one matinee, on February 28 and March 1.

Preparations for this big event, which is in charge of Mr. Percy R. Davis of the mathematics department, are causing quite a stir at the High School, both among the large number of students and the especially privileged teachers who are already initiated into the mysterious surprises in course of construction, and those who are still on the outside and forbidden to look in.

All that has so far been made public is that there will be laughs and thrills with a constantly changing variety and something better coming right ahead the whole way through. There will be soldiers and sailors and pretty girls, with glee club songs, dramatic sketches and plenty of comedy.

All of the departments of the school are cooperating for the success of the affair. The Mechanical Arts department is busily at work on the scenic and electrical effects. The Art department is preparing some beautiful posters under the direction of Miss Irene Muller. Miss Terry, teacher of dramatics, and Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, teacher of music are both actively engaged in training the young actors.

This is probably the biggest event of the school year and one in which the general public can share the High School good times. The committees are preparing for large audiences at every one of the three performances. Everyone is interested in what the High School is doing and the entire city takes pride in the development of talent among the young people such as is brought out by an occasion of this nature.

KNITTING BEE

Mrs. John M. Ray of 107 North Kenwood street was hostess at a most delightful knitting chain party Friday afternoon. A very pleasant social afternoon was spent and delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad, hot biscuits and coffee were served. The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Ray's hospitality were: Mrs. Emma Brownfield, Mrs. Bert Woodard, Mrs. Harry L. Howe, Mrs. J. K. Hill, Mesdames Earl Plasterer, J. A. McKelvey and Mrs. Charles Straight.

BIRTHDAY DANCE

Mrs. J. Hacker of the Atwater Tract entertained last Tuesday in celebration of her husband's birthday. About eighteen guests enjoyed an evening of music and dancing at this hospitable home, those entertained being: Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Seger, H. T. Colby, S. C. Charles, A. Harris, and daughter Lucile, Mr. and Mrs. Swartout, Mr. Hardwick, Miss Hazel Giddings, Leo Light, Mr. and Mrs. D. Holman. Dainty refreshments were served.

PETER L. SCHUYLER

At his home at 1430 Ivy street, Glendale, Peter L. Schuyler passed away at noon, Friday, February 8th. He was a retired physician of New York and was 86 years of age. Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Scovern Letton & Frey having charge.

TOWARDS DEMOCRACY CLUB

THE SPIRIT OF '76

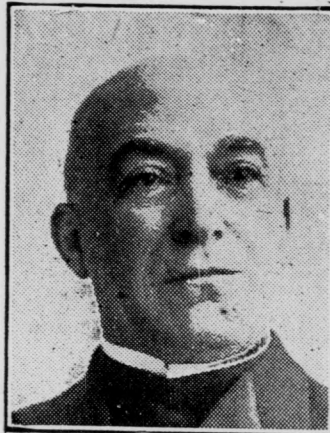

By SAMUEL PARKER

The Spirit of '76 say you? I little care who you be, but don't abuse, or belittle or cover up, or retire, or in any way seek to put out of business that old original picture of the "Spirit of '76." I won't stand for it. Why that picture sent more men into the ranks during the Civil War than all the speeches in Congress, or any other single influence aside from the appeals of President Lincoln. Say—what a picture that. The long gray hair of that Old Fifer, waving as a banner as his very soul was poured into the instrument, and out again, caught by the echoes in groves and hillside. Say, can you look on the face of that lad artist of that snare drum and not feel a thrill through your entire being? See the lad raise his face to the face of the Old Fifer as if to catch anew the sentiment dominant in the hearts of both. Now he turns anew to his drum and rains a bewildering shower of strokes thereon as if the enemy of his country was camping inside—and I have him now. Talk about a fine picture. Was ever art put in higher use than in that picture. Talk of retiring it or shading down by art posters. Let it alone, just as it shows in the original. If you want a good job multiply it, ad infinitum until every child in the land has a copy, but let it alone in the original.

An optimist is a man who always looks on the bright side of things when there isn't any.

JOHN TYLER

A special treat is in store for the congregation of the Glendale Methodist Church Sunday evening February 10th. For that evening Pastor B. D. Snudden has secured the famous John Tyler, of Virginia, scion of the Tyler family celebrated in the history of our country, but a scion who in the dissipations of college life forgot the traditions of his family and eventually descended to a plane in which he became known as "International Bum" or "King of the Tramps." When sixty years of age he returned from his foreign wanderings to his native land. Knocked about from pillar to post, when he was down and out he was taken to the Jerry McAuley Rescue Mission under Brooklyn Bridge in New York and was there converted and restored to manhood. He is a man of large and powerful physique and has developed into one of the most eloquent of the orators which the Y. M. C. A. is sending out as evangelists.

JOHN TYLER

This is an unusual opportunity to hear an unusual man, and Rev. Snudden hopes that the members of his congregation and Glendale citizens generally will take advantage of it.

LINCOLN NIGHT

Citizens of Glendale have had their attention called to the fact that two entertainments are scheduled for the evening of February 12th, viz. the February Festival of the Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist Church of Glendale, and the monthly Red Cross Concert to be given in the High School Auditorium for which a very fine and patriotic program has been secured.

With rare generosity the ladies of the Methodist Church are having their program early so it will be possible for their audience to also attend the entertainment at Union High. John Hyde Braly, president of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter is anxious, on behalf of the organization, to express his appreciation of this courtesy and to have Glendale citizens realize that it will be possible for them to attend both affairs.

CARD OF THANKS

To the noble orders of Elks and Masons, also the many friends known and unknown to us, whose big heartedness, sympathy and devotion helped us so much to bear up during my dear husband's illness, as also in my great bereavement, I wish sincerely and gratefully to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation.

Mrs. Annie O'Connor Vandiver.

Last Month

I made several real estate loans and I am sure both the borrowers and the lenders were well pleased with the service I rendered them.

I still have more money for loan in varying amounts to suit your requirements, without any advance in rates.

My charges for any services I render are always reasonable. That is one reason why my business has been growing steadily right through these troublous times. Another reason for this growth is that I sell all kinds of insurance at prices that are never unreasonable. I have from the beginning made a consistent fight to keep insurance rates down to a living basis and have succeeded. There are no rates that I can not duplicate.

In automobile insurance I have some special contracts that you should look into before you place your order.

CARLOADS OF SOUP SHIPPED EAST

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 9.—Carloads of live soup are being sent east almost weekly.

The average car contains 1,000 live, peppy, snapping turtles for bejeweled and broadclothed epicurians of the effete east. The average car weighs 20,000 pounds.

C. Wicklund, Twin City turtle soup king, realizes about $3,000 annually in profit from the business. It takes a force of men six weeks to catch and sack one carload of the turtles.

This will be the last year in which the turtle business will be good in Minnesota. Since the average age of the product is 300 years, newspaper readers are not likely to be bothered by a repetition of this story.

The turtles are caught by training a 400 candle power gas lantern on a surface of a lake. Ten to twenty turtles usually catch each other by the tails, and come to the light. Then a screw driver is used to pry the turtles loose from each other.

Grocers will be required to sell potatoes in the ratio of two to one, that is, if the patriotic housewife buys one pound of white flour she will purchase two pounds of potatoes, or if supplied with that staple, she may purchase an equal quantity of substitute flour with the white variety.

The new ruling was promulgated with a view to increasing the number of substitutes for wheat products, greater saving of which is necessary to supply the needs of the ed the request which you have presented to me asking me to become a candidate for the office of trustee of the City of Glendale at the election to be held in April next. Besides this written request many of you, as well as other persons, have orally presented the matter to my attention and strongly urged this course upon me. I have had no ambitions in that direction, and at first refused to consider the matter; but you would not take no for an answer, and insisted that the portion of Glendale which was formerly Tropico is entitled to a representative on the Glendale Board of Trustees, and that at this time, when the consolidation has just been completed, it is important that such a representative should be one who worked for the consolidation and will work to make it a success. You have further insisted that since I was one of the leaders in the last movement for consolidation, it is my duty to make the personal sacrifice involved in this campaign and to do my part towards finishing what I helped to begin. Your insistence has overcome my reluctance, and I have, therefore, yielded my personal preference and now authorize you to announce to our fellow citizens of Glendale that I will be a candidate for the office of trustee at the coming election.

SHAW FOR TRUSTEE

It has always been my desire to do whatever I could to advance the best interests of our community, and I favored consolidation because I believed it was for the best good of both Tropico and Glendale. Our Tropico neighborhood has some special interests and needs which will require attention from the City Government, and if elected a City Trustee it will be my endeavor to look out for those interests and needs, but I should not expect to represent our part of the city in any narrow or sectional spirit. To my mind the two cities have long constituted by nature one community and whatever benefits the whole community will also be for the benefit of the various parts. If elected a Trustee I shall, therefore, strive for those things which will redound to the growth, welfare and advantage of the whole City and shall view all the problems of the City Government from that standpoint, to the end that the various parts of Greater Glendale may be speedily welded into a harmonious whole.

Thanking you for your expression of confidence in me, and assuring you of my desire to serve the general good in whatever way may be thought best, I am

Very truly yours,
HARTLEY SHAW.

Allied nations, and to stimulate consumption of potatoes, of which there is an apparent surplus in the state.

Housewives are urged to serve potatoes in place of "Victory" bread or any bread containing wheat flour or wheat products.

Present potato prices will not be allowed to soar as a result of the order, the food administration announced. Any increase either by the jobber, producer or the retailer will be met by an official order removing potatoes from the list of substitutes.

Potato dealers from various sections throughout California have complained to the food administration that sales had recently suffered a sharp decline and asked for relief as a measure to encourage planting of potatoes this spring. Decreased consumption on the part of the public for an apparent unexplainable reason, was blamed for the present glut of the market.

Rice was also placed in the list of white flour substitutes along with potatoes, with orders that retailers sell it pound for pound with white flour. Choice of these substitutes to be purchased with the white flour is of course left with the consumer, although the administration urges the greatest possible consumption of potatoes.

LECTURE COURSE PLANNED

Another University Extension class will be organized Monday evening at the Intermediate School at 7:30 o'clock for a course of lectures on the modern social aspects of education. It will be under the auspices of the University of Southern California and the lectures will be given by Arthur C. Brown of this city who is conducting similar lecture courses in Los Angeles where 600 adult students are enrolled with an average attendance of 300 a night. Those who take the work will receive University credits and it will be of great advantage to the people of this section including Eagle Rock and Casa Verdugo who are far from the University to have it brought to their doors in this way. The course mentioned has been selected with reference to the special needs of teachers, but if there is sufficient encouragement other courses will be arranged for. Mr. Brown's experience has made him enthusiastic over this department of University work and he declares it will be a great thing for Glendale if it can be developed as a center of university extension work. The inauguration of courses in history and English are under consideration.

Eight are already enrolled for the course beginning Monday evening, which takes up principally the work of modern schools in their sociological aspects. There are indications that the class will number twenty or more and that the discussions which will follow the lectures will be of great interest and value.

In all respects it was a most successful affair and will do much to promote the unity and good fellowship of the girls of Glendale High, which is the primary purpose of the League, and of the "Big Sister" movement which the hospitality committee, under the chairmanship of Louise Hester is fostering.

As an organization it has not yet undertaken special Red Cross work but its members are in the big surgical dressings class which meets Tuesday afternoons at Red Cross headquarters, and they will also participate in the Junior Red Cross and Red Star work which is being organized in the schools. The League is planning for a war benefit entertainment to be given some time in March.
